

Charlottenburg-Berlin, den 26. 6. 1903.
Grolmanstr. 41.

Dear friend,
I hasten to reply to your note.
You know that it will give me always pleasure to play either in public or privately and if matters can be arranged for my next visit I shall be much pleased. Only I am in duty bound to consult the interest of our guarantors. Will you therefore kindly tell Mrs. Robinson and ask whether she will communicate with Mr.
Speyer unless you prefer to do so yourself. I will be 72 years on next Sunday. May it be granted to me to play in public still next year.

With kindest greetings your old friend

Joseph Joachim
